

TABLE OF CONTENTS

COMMISSIONERS' FOREWORD

PART 1: THE NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL POLICY CONTEXT

PART 2: RATIONALE FOR A FOCUS ON THE EARLY YEARS 0-8

The early years are important for brain development and competence and coping in later life

Benefits of promoting early childhood development

Cost-effectiveness of early childhood development programs

Societal changes

Evidence that some outcomes are worsening

Evidence that some groups are particularly struggling

Problems with the current system

Ethical responsibility towards children

Conclusion

PART 3: THE WELLBEING OF AUSTRALIA'S CHILDREN 0-8

Introduction

1. Health

Parental health

Child nutrition

Play and physical activity

Child welfare – abuse and neglect

Child morbidity

Child mortality

Child disabilities

Child emotional wellbeing

2. Education and work

School retention

Child literacy

Child numeracy

Parental employment

3. Child environment

Family structure

Safety

Housing status

4. Service delivery

Child care

Early detection and intervention

5. Criminality

Youth offences

Youth justice orders / detention
Drug use

6. Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children
Health
Education
Child environment
Service delivery
Criminality and drug use
Human Development: International Comparison
Conclusion

PART 4: PRINCIPLES TO GUIDE INVESTMENT IN THE EARLY YEARS

PART 5: PRIORITY OUTCOME AREAS FOR AUSTRALIA

The goal: "Giving Australian children a head start in life
Outcomes
Underpinning strategies
Links with other policies

Outcome area 1: Supporting the wellbeing of women of child-bearing age
Rationale for effort
Examples of actions to achieve this outcome

Outcome area 2: Promoting child wellbeing
Rationale for effort
Examples of actions to achieve this outcome

Outcome area 3: Supporting the choices of families in their parental and working roles
Rationale for effort
Examples of actions to achieve this outcome

Outcome area 4: Enriching, safe and supportive environments for children
Rationale for effort
Examples of actions to achieve this outcome

Outcome area 5: Improving economic security for families and reducing child poverty
Rationale for effort
Examples of actions to achieve this outcome

Outcome area 6: Achieving success in learning and social development
Rationale for effort
Examples of actions to achieve this outcome

Outcome area 7: Protecting the safety of children

Rationale for effort

Examples of actions to achieve this outcome

Outcome area 8: Promoting connections across generations, families, cultures and communities

Rationale for effort

Examples of actions to achieve this outcome

Outcome area 9: Increasing children's participation: policy action, awareness raising and advocacy

Rationale for effort

Examples of actions to achieve this outcome

Underpinning strategies for achieving outcomes

A skilled and safe workforce

Rationale for effort

Examples of actions to achieve this outcome

Evidence based policy and program development and implementation

Rationale for effort

Examples of actions to achieve this outcome

Redesigning systems and services to support coordinated action

Rationale for effort

Examples of actions to achieve this outcome

A sustained and sustainable communication strategy to focus community and government attention and action

Rationale for effort

Examples of actions to achieve this outcome

PART 6: NATIONAL INDICATORS TO TRACK CHILD WELLBEING

Considerations for monitoring child wellbeing

Criteria for indicators of child wellbeing

Criteria for monitoring performance

Effective monitoring systems

Framework for performance indicators

Domains

Data sources

Issues to be addressed

Conclusion

PART 7: KEY SUCCESS FACTORS TO IMPLEMENT A NATIONAL EFFORT

References