

Resource 23

Student self-evaluation

Name: _____

Reflect on your own participation in our unit on Children's Rights...

1. Class discussions

This table relates to how well you participated in class discussions.

Think about how you contributed to developing a community of inquiry.

Provide evidence for your statements. Be as specific as you can....

An example of a possible answer is given in the first row.

Statement	Seldom	Sometimes	Often	Evidence
I actively listened to others			✓	I sat in a position where I could see everyone else and they could see me.
I actively listened to others
I considered questions carefully before taking a position
I was respectful of other people's points of view
I stayed focussed on the discussion topic or question
I used a range of techniques to explain my point of view

2. Class tasks and projects

Statement	Strongly Agree	Agree	Neither agree or disagree	Disagree
I worked well on my own
I worked well with others
I completed tasks and projects thoughtfully
I sought information from a variety of sources
I made sure that I understood what I had read before writing it in my own words
I worked to the best of my ability

3. New learning

What new learning have you achieved during this unit. Quickly brainstorm a list of things you have learned during this unit

What was the most interesting part of the unit?

Which was the least interesting part of the unit?
