

Resource 8

Sentence clues

I think I know the right answer.

Walking home from school I was caught in the rain and ended up soaked right through.

You'd better do the right thing and own up.

It's not right to leave the party without saying goodbye.

Do you need something, or are you right?

It serves you right.

I might be interested, if the price is right.

You hit the nail right on the head.

No, I haven't asked my parents yet...I'm waiting for the right time.

Are you sure that painting is hung the right way up?

After the exam, I was so upset I went right over to Mum's office to cry on her shoulder.

When you get to the bottom of the lane, take a right turn and head towards the park.

We'll leave for the movies right after dinner.

He has a right to vote in the election.

I know you'd like him to apologise, but he really believes he's in the right.

Are you in your right mind? That's a crazy idea.

We were really worried about her after the accident, but she is all right now.

Your speech hit exactly the right note.

It might be legal, but it's just not right.

This shirt doesn't fit right.

After our canoe capsized, we struggled so hard to right it that we were exhausted.

The road is set at right angles to the path.

Once the visitors left, we all pitched in and set the place to rights.

If you play your cards right, she might invite you too.

He is a member of a right wing political organisation.

It happened right over there.

Once Jenna got started working in the garden, she kept right on going until darkness fell.

No, Dad I don't want you to call him and ask him to give me the job. I want to earn it in my own right.

Right on, man!